

Vringo Announces Availability of Second Quarter 2011 Earnings Call Transcript

August 19, 2011

Management Team Discusses Vringo's Financial Performance, and Future Growth Initiatives in the Expanding Global Market for Mobile Social and Video Applications

NEW YORK, Aug 19, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

Vringo, Inc. (NYSE Amex: VRNG), a provider of software platforms for mobile video applications and video ringtones, today announced the availability of the transcript for its second quarter 2011 earnings conference call, held on August 15, 2011.

During the conference call, Jon Medved, Vringo's CEO stated, "As those that have been following the company can attest, we have been very active in signing up new deals and partnerships across various continents as we put in place a strong platform for our future growth."

"Vringo's Facetones application was launched with BlueVia, the global developer platform for Telefonica, the largest speaking mobile operator in the world with over 290 million customers. In addition, Facetones was recently launched in Japan for Android users through the docomo market, a mobile internet portal operated by NTT DOCOMO, the largest mobile phone operator in Japan with over 50 million customers," explained Mr. Medved.

Andrew Perlman, Vringo's President concluded, "As we look to the end of the year we are excited about potentially closing the Zlango transaction, launching our new platforms and expanding our reach. This is a very exciting time in Vringo's development. We believe we can leverage our existing early successes and quickly ramp up the size of our business."

During the conference call, Vringo's management team discussed the company's services in markets around the world, its proposed acquisition of Zlango and details of its revenue and earnings numbers for the second quarter.

Interested parties are encouraged to read the full transcript of the conference call, which is available here:
